Tips & Tricks

The Submit Date is the deadline for submitting the proposal or bid for this project. The pre-bid meeting is sometimes mandatory. If you are interested in this project, it is always a good idea to call the buyer to get more and accurate information. If there is no buyer information on this page, you can look at the owner on the contacts tab and call the number. They should be able to connect you through to the buyer.

You can add the submit date and the date of the pre-bid meeting to your Outlook calendar with the "VCal" link.

The project history tells you the different stages that this project went through and the documents that are available. Although we try to cover each project as comprehensively as possible, there might be cases when we are not able to connect all documents that belong together. Click on the titles to view details for different stages of the project.
